

DAILY ARRIVALS

Are becoming common occurrences at our store. Every day we show an entire new line and assortment of all classes in Ready-to-Wear Garments.

LOCAL LINES.

—For Dr. Pondley ring 416.
—C. L. Brunson & Co. have moved their flower store to 529 Broadway.

—Ed Alexander, the policeman, is ill. He has been on his vacation but on returning home was unable to resume work. He is suffering from malarial fever.

—City subscribers to the Daily Sun who wish the delivery of their papers stopped must notify our collectors or make their requests direct to The Sun office. No attention will be paid to such orders when given to our carriers, Sun Pub. Co.

—Capt. J. W. Bush, of Smithland, who has been seriously ill of heart trouble, will be out in two weeks, his physicians believe, so rapid is his recovery.

—Dr. Gilbert, Osteopath, 400 1-2 Broadway, Phone 196.

—Charles Morgan, the 14-year-old son of Mr. Ed Morgan the blacksmith, tried to use gasoline in inflating a toy tissue paper balloon Sunday night and the liquid in the tin can exploded. The burning gasoline spread over his face and seriously burned the boy.

—One load of our coal will make you an advertiser for us. Bradley Bros. Phone 339.

—Jack Capps stabbed Hewlet Heron at a farm near Kuttawa Sunday and may not recover. Capps is a railroader from Illinois and the trouble resulted from an old grudge. Capps is charged with malicious cutting.

—Our customers are our best advertisers. Ask your neighbor. Bradley Bros. Phone 339.

—The elevator at the postoffice which has been out of commission for several weeks on account of a break in the machinery, will be in running order in a few days. Last night Mr. Herman Cochran, of the Eaton-Prince Elevator company, which installed the elevator, arrived and is today working on the machinery. He hopes to get the cage to working again by Saturday.

—For sale cheap, one seat, two wheel pony cart; also pony harness, brass mounted, all nearly new. Can be seen at the Tully Livery Co. Bruce M. Barnard.

—In the account of the death of Mrs. Rodden Saturday the statement was made that she was the mother of Mrs. Hester Gardner, of South Third street, which is untrue, and the correction is made at Mrs. Gardner's request.

—When you order a rig from us you are talking to one of the proprietors or capable clerks (not a driver or hostler) who writes files and fills the order at appointed time. Palmer Transfer company.

—Rev. J. R. Stewart, of Lone Oak, who assisted Rev. T. L. Taylor, has just concluded one of the most successful meetings of the year at the Baptist church at La Center, 23 additions being the direct results. A great interest was manifest in the services, and under the influence of the strong sermons great good was accomplished. A number of candidates for baptism were immersed Sunday.

—We guarantee to please you with Old Taylor, Ky., Lump coal. Phone 339 Bradley Bros.

—The C. W. D. M. auxiliary of the First Christian church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Whitfield.

—Dr. J. V. Voris, dentist, 200 Fraternity building.

—The McCracken County Medical society will meet tonight in Dr. J. G. Brubaker's office in the Trueheart building. Dr. Brooks will lecture. It is the first weekly meeting of the society.

—The Sun office is prepared to furnish the very latest things in engraved or printed calling cards and invitations of any sort, and is making special prices now.

—The board of education will meet tonight at the Washington building at 8 o'clock in the regular monthly meeting. The report of the board of arbitration will be received and acted upon.

—Old Reliable, Carterville, Ill., washed nut, and egg coal is the cheapest. Bradley Bros. Phone 339.

—Special services will be held at Temple Israel for the feast of Booths of Tabernacles Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

—Something new—A clever magazine for the railroad man. "Twit", too, interest everyone but has an especial attraction for the railroad man and his family. Get the first number, only 10c. R. D. Clements & Co.

—The beautiful new home of the Paducah lodge of the B. P. O. Elks was thrown open to members at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Although the reading and lounging rooms are nicely fitted up, the lodge is awaiting the coming of nine handsome pieces of furniture. When these arrive the Elks will formally dedicate their building.

—Do not be deceived, Bradley Bros. are sole agents for Carterville, Ill., washed coal, Phone 339.

—Modern Woodmen camp 11,313 at its regular meeting Monday night initiated five candidates into the mysteries of the order. A large class is being arranged for November.

—Plans are being drawn in Architect Lassiter's office for a handsome two-story brick residence for Dr. H. P. Sights on Jefferson street near Seventh street.

—Tonight the library board will meet and select an assistant secretary to succeed Miss Ruby Corbett, resigned. Other matters of a routine nature will be acted on.

People and Pleasant Events

Parties pending in accounts of social entertainments will please sign them, as The Sun will not publish communications sent in that are not signed.

D. A. R. October Program.

The Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold the regular meeting for October on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. George C. Thompson, of West Broadway, is the hostess. As is its custom, the chapter will devote the winter to a regular course of study of early American history, along varied lines, and an interesting and comprehensive program has been outlined for each month. The program for the October meeting is:

Quotation—"Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on."

Song—"America."

Children's Horse Show Features.

While each horse show event has its individual interest, the children's feature absorbs, perhaps, more than all the others combined. The committee in charge, under the head of the talented chairman, Mrs. Joseph

L. Friedman, have labored to make it the happiest occasion of the week and has assured their success by selecting: Eunice Voris, age two and a-half years; Susan Porter Sleeth,

two and a-half years; Anna Webb

Phillips, three years, and Lena Utterback, three years, to take part,

as well as a number of older children.

On Saturday afternoon the committee will entertain all of the children taking part at the home of Mrs. Friedman, "The Pines." It will be a lawn fete and the Horse

Show association will present bracelets to the girls and watches to the boys as souvenirs of the occasion.

Box Party to Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman will give a double box party tonight at the Kentucky theater in honor of four attractive visitors, Mrs. Frank Watts, of Nashville, and Mrs. Anne Berryman, of Clarksville, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Flournoy; Mrs. John Love, of New York, who is with Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips at "Woodlawn," and Miss Emma Lon Love, of Indianapolis, visiting Misses Claribel and Carrie Rieke.

BADLY HURT

WAGON COLLIDES WITH STREET CAR.

Andy Davis Sustains Broken Collarbone and Serious Injury to His Head.

In a collision of a Rhodes-Burford delivery wagon and a south-bound street car, No. 59, at 11:30 this morning at Eighth and Adams streets Andy Davis, of Twelfth and Monroe streets, had his collar bone broken and an ugly gash cut in his head. Jim Hardison, the driver, was not injured.

The street car, in charge of motorman J. S. Bagby and Conductor M. B. Jordan, hit the front wheel of the wagon, knocking it clear of the tracks. The mules hitched to the wagon had gotten across and were not injured. Motorman Bagby says the current had been reversed.

Rice Miller, colored, 35 years old, died at 229 North Twelfth street, of a complication of diseases, will be buried this afternoon in Oak Grove cemetery.

John Mulvihill, formerly a well known local coal dealer, announces himself in Cairo, Ill., as a candidate for county clerk of Alexander county but that it was impossible to check the momentum of the car in the short interval between seeing the wagon and hitting it.

Annie Maze, a colored woman, witnessed the collision, but on account of deafness could not tell whether the motorman rang his bell or not. She said the driver of the wagon appeared to be trying to cross ahead of the car and the team was across when the accident occurred.

Davis was carried to her house and they attended to him until the arrival of doctors. Dr. Lynn Smith and Dr. C. H. Brothers prepared Davis to be carried to the hospital. They found his collar bone had been broken and that a serious wound had been inflicted in his head. He was carried to Riverside hospital in Guy Nance's ambulance, but it was found that the hospital was crowded already to capacity, and he was carried to his brother's house, 1117 South Fourth street.

Patrolman Aaron Hurley arrived on the scene immediately after the accident occurred.

Operator S. W. James, of the local I. C. passenger depot, has returned to work after a week's illness.

That the heat units in a HEATING STOVE is what counts in heating cold air? A stove may put forth its best efforts to serve, but lacking in heat units, can only heat a little space around it.

HART'S HEATERS

Arg made with heat units everywhere. The larger stoves have very powerful circulation features also, making it easy for HART'S STOVES to do the work, which is the reason they use so LITTLE FUEL and LAST so LONG.

RAILROAD NOTES

Names Engines.
"Hey, gimme Old Car Hauler," John Trantham, the popular Illinois Central engineer commanded as he entered the round house and prepared to take out his run. "There is no engine in the round house by that name," Joe Walker, foreman, replied, but after an explanation, engine No. 849 was run out of the round house and Trantham crawled into the cab. Bob McCarty runs 855 and her name is Kate Adams, named after a steamboat. Ed Evitts runs 843 and her name is Joseph B. Williams. Charles Wagoner calls 852 the John A. Wood.

Mr. Lowry Branton, of the south side, has been appointed gardner for the local Illinois Central to succeed Mr. James McLaughlin, resigned. Mr. McLaughlin has gone with the N. C. & St. L. as gardner of the Paducah-Paris, Tenn., division, and left this morning for Murray to look over the road. He will tomorrow go to Paris.

Mr. W. C. Waggoner, supervisor of bridges and buildings of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, is in the city looking after improvements to railroad property. He stated that just as soon as the remainder of the material gets here the work of building a brick platform at the passenger station will begin.
